"In Search of Africa" earns 3.5 stars from me. I cannot fault Frank Coates on grammar, plot line, descriptions, or character building, but there was just something missing. In certain scenes that should have been nail-biting, the excitement was absent.

In Search of Africa by Frank Coates - Goodreads

In Search of Africa is a smart, rewarding study by a native-born African attempting to recapture the mystique of a distant past. In his search, we are enlightened as we grapple with his conclusion that 'the salvation of Africa lies in modernization, the creation of a secular public sphere, and the freedom of individuals.'
